- Bon Soon was a cool TA- easily made lessons interesting and has a good sense of humor. Could sometimes fall off the topic at hand but his tangents were still pertinent to the course and gave better perspective on some of the things we had been learning.
- Bon-soon is a great and enthusiastic teacher. He explains concepts thoroughly and really makes sure that we understand what is going on.
- Bonsoon is perhaps the best teacher I have had ever, period. He goes over everything with great detail and makes sure that everyone understands the material. He cracks the occasional joke and is never boring. He makes discussion sessions very enjoyable. He sends out emails with the solutions to discussion worksheets and you can tell he truly wants the best for the students.
- Excellent TA who knows a lot about the subject. Always willing to help and expand on the concepts. He made me think outside of the box and made me understand the concepts better, especially if they were rushed during class or the textbook did not good explanations of. Very funny and cheerful personality which made discussion sections less boring.
- He was always interesting to listen to, and although he often went on tangents and I was never able to see him in office hours because they overlap with another of my classes, I know that he at least tried to help and cared.
- Lin has been one of the more energetic TA's I've had at UCLA, and I genuinely appreciate his enthusiasm immensely. His positivity did a great job of engaging me into the material. I felt comfortable approaching him for help.
- Mr. Bon-soon Lin is an extremely amazing T.A. His discussions are fantastic and helped me clear a lot of concepts. I would look forward to his section every week.
