- Awesome and friendly
  - Bon Soon always explained everything we learned in depth and made everything very easy to understand by working out examples. He always asked if we understood what he taught and cared about his students' learning.
  - Bon Soon was always available and even stayed extra hours to make sure students understood the material. His discussion hours definitely cleared up topics that were introduced in lecture. His teaching is extremely effective and his energy always made learning with him especially fun.
  - Bon Soon was very organized in his discussions and his explanations were very helpful. Overall good TA
  - Bon-Soon is really great at explaining everything in full detail; it is very helpful.
  - Bon-Soon was very funny in class and made the subject more enjoyable than I had expected. It was worth coming to class at 8 AM.
  - Bonsoon is a great TA! He's very helpful, and he explains concepts with details and patience.
  - Bonsoon was honestly the best TA I had this quarter, and my two other TAs were both excellent. He made himself extremely accessible, and always held extra office hours, aside from the two hours he held for Math 3A each week. I felt comfortable asking him about any problem I had because he would never hesitate to explain the mechanics behind problems of the same sort before going on to explain the example at hand. I cannot express how much I appreciated Bonsoon as a TA.
  - Mr. Lin has been a good TA and always provides helpful material that supplements our lectures. My only complaint is I wish he would show up to our class on time.
  - My TA does a good job of reviewing the material, although sometimes it does not match the material we learned that same week. He goes over homework problems that were difficult and answers any questions we may have.
  - Strength: very reasonable pace, got a lot done in 50 minutes
  - The TA started each section with warm-up problems then explained them and went over concepts from the week's lectures. At the end of class he would answer any homework questions. Very nice and helpful.
  - This TA has an excellent understanding of the material and is very helpful in clarifying any issues that might have come up in lecture.
