- Bon Soon is an excellent TA who happens to sometimes go off on tangents that are a bit irrelevant. I have missed a few discussions, but a lot of them have just been going over problems that are on the homework and not the more difficult ones. I think he would get a little more interest from the students if he started going over the problems that students asked him to go over instead.
- Bon soon is easiest one of the best TAs I have had at UCLA. He has a lot of office hours, and teach things very clearly and well.
- Bon-Soon is very helpful during office hours. He is willing to spend a lot of time answering student questions and helps guide students as they are trying to study for the class. His discussion sessions are clear, organized, accessible, and helpful.
